

Three substructures are included in the picture above from spring 2005 showing the three Buzzard jackets in order to illustrate the size of the substructures for the offshore windmills.

The picture above to the left shows two Multibrid M5000 (5MW each) windmills in Bremerhafen, these windmills are prototypes for the complete offshore windmill including the substructure. The picture above to the right shows a close-up of the substructure.